It is the policy of the Southwestern Regional Emergency Medical Services Council that the stated application fee must accompany all applications. All checks or money orders are to be made payable to SWREMS Council. The application fee shall cover all expenses that occur to the SWREMS Council in the review process. If the process exceeds the cost of the initial Application Fee, the applicant will be billed for the balance, payment of which shall be a condition to SWREMS Council approval. Any unused funds at the end of the process will be returned to the applicant.
